English Learning Objective:		To answer questions about a picture	To practice handwriting joins and presentation	To write a postcard based on a real event.

Learning Activity:		(On Seesaw) Looking at the picture on the slides answer questions in full sentences.	(On Seesaw) Have a look through the various documents from the time of the Jersey Occupation. Choose one and copy it out in your neatest handwriting. Make it authentic- You could make it look old by staining it with tea bags!	Watch the video with images from Liberation Day. Imagine that you were there. Write a postcard to a family member. What might you tell them? Describe all of the sights that you saw. Use all of your senses. Be creative. Draw a picture on the reverse showing what happened
Creative Curriculum Learning Objective:		Art To draw a view from a window.	Art/ P.S.H.E/ Food tech To show citizenship, be creative and get party prepared!	Whole School Focus – Liberation Day
Learning Activity:		What can you see from the windows in your house? Today I would like you to pick one window and draw what you can see from it. You can stick to just using pencil or if you have access to paints you can use them.	Plan and prepare a tea party to celebrate Liberation 75. You could: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Decorate a window ready for Liberation (maybe next to your rainbow) Make a flag or some bunting 	I will be challenging you to do our Liberation Day school walk in a home learning style. Wear red, white and blue, take a flag and head out with a parent on a walk around the local area. Challenge yourself to walk a little further than you normally do (keeping within any lock down restrictions). On the way, see if you can spot houses

		There will be a selection of examples on Seesaw to look at.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bake some fairy cakes • Make a party menu • Afternoon tea table decorations 	with bunting up outside or other ways people are celebrating. I will post a video of some landmarks in St Martin's and information linked to Liberation Day for you to see.
